Conflict, Negotiations and Natural Resource Management

A legal pluralism perspective from India

Edited by Maarten Bavinck, University of Amsterdam, The Netherlands and Amalendu Jyotishi, Amrita University, India

Series: Routledge Explorations in Environmental Studies

This collection brings a diverse range of approaches to the question of pluralism, property and natural resource management in South East Asia. This significant contribution to the rapidly growing body of literature exploring indigenous people, legal pluralism, land rights and environmentalism is a timely and persuasive overview of the fundamental role of property rights in shaping how people manage natural resources. This brand new research will be of interest to scholars and practitioners of environmental law, property law, environmental politics, anthropology, sociology and geography.
