Membership with the Commission on Legal Pluralism

The Commission on Legal Pluralism furthers knowledge and understanding of legal pluralism, with a focus upon theoretical and practical problems resulting from the interaction of different types of law, such as state law, international and transnational law, religious law, and customary law. Among its main activities are the organization of international symposia; the initiation and encouragement of Regional Working Groups in different parts of the world; and the organization and delivery of courses and summer schools on legal pluralism.

You can become a member of the Commission on Legal Pluralism and benefit from the reduced conference fee and other advantages, such as one year complimentary online subscription to the Journal of Legal Pluralism, published by Routledge, Taylor & Francis, and e-mail alerts on events and activities in the field of legal pluralism.

In order to become a member, please subscribe to the Commission on Legal Pluralism by registering with groupspaces at <http://groupspaces.com/CLP/join/> and paying the membership fee of €31.26 by following the instructions stated there.

Visas for Canada

Most people traveling to Canada will need a visa. There are two types of visa: temporary resident visa and Electronic Travel Authorization (ETA).

We want to advise those of you who need a temporary resident visa to travel to Canada, to start on this process as soon as possible. See the following websites for information:

- Whether you need to apply for a temporary resident visa or for an Electronic Travel Authorization (ETA): https://www.canada.ca/en/immigration-refugees-citizenship/services/visit-canada/eligibility.html?lnktrk=visa_less_six_months
- How to apply for a temporary resident visa (<https://www.canada.ca/en/immigration-refugees-citizenship/services/application/application-forms-guides/guide-5256-applying-visitor-visa-temporary-resident-visa.html>). Note that they seem to make a distinction between tourist visa and business visa, but in fact, these are the same. In both cases, you need to apply for a temporary resident visa. If you need an invitation letter from the University of Ottawa, please send an email to Viviana Fernandez at Viviana.Fernandez@uottawa.ca. You will be responsible for fulfilling all the requirements of the visa program yourself.
- To apply for the ETA online: https://www.canada.ca/en/immigration-refugees-citizenship/services/visit-canada/eligibility.html?lnktrk=visa_less_six_months.
